CMM Distribution Policy

Subject: CMM Availability and Cost Data

Dear Sirs,

Pacific Scientific policy on Component Maintenance Manual distribution is as follows:

Pacific Scientific designs, develops, and manufactures safety equipment for various airplane manufacturers. The supply of components, product support services and maintenance data are requirements under the terms of those contracts. CMM data is provided under contract to aircraft operators and authorized service representatives.

Data is made available to all other users for the standard price of $2,000 for each CMM. Each manual supplement is priced at $1,500. Manuals and supplements are available in electronic or paper format and are current and covered by revision service for a minimum of one year from the date of license.

The current Pacific Scientific manual index is available in .pdf format on an FOC basis.
